Preparation

To best prepare for your wonderful session(s), please be sure to review the video and audio recording on the bottom half of the "Schedule a Session" webpage prior to your first session. Additionally, the FAQs section addresses questions you may have and provides guidance regarding best practices/preparation.

____ Please initial here to confirm that you reviewed the information provided on the www.payitforwardhypnosis.com website.

I, _____, understand that, while we will likely be successful in attaining my hypnosis goals, there can be no guarantees since each client (and each session) is different. I am aware, however, that Courtney wants to hear my feedback (before, during, and after the sessions) and is trained in a variety of techniques that can best address my needs.

Recordings

I also understand that my sessions will be audio recorded by Courtney and the files will be emailed to me so I can listen to the recordings in the future as a way of reconnecting with the wisdom and energy of the sessions.

I understand that Courtney may write and/or speak about the exceptional experiences that occur during my sessions and that this sharing of information will always be done in a loving manner and for the purposes of teaching/helping others. I understand that my identity will always remain confidential and that Courtney will never reveal my identity or details about me or my sessions that may reveal my identity.

Should Courtney find excerpts of my sessions to be exceptionally helpful to others, she will always ask for my written permission prior to sharing excerpts of the audio recordings.

Arrival Time

I understand that the time for my sessions has been reserved exclusively for me and that there may be appointments reserved for others before and/or after my reserved time. Keeping this in mind...

♥I agree to arrive on time (not early) since there is no waiting room at Courtney’s office.♥

I also understand that my sessions will need to end on time even if I am late.

♥Please arrive exactly on time and not early (not even a few minutes early). Courtney sincerely needs this favor since there is no waiting room at her office and she needs the time to be able to grab a snack and take a bathroom break between the long sessions. Courtney completely understands that those who arrive early are trying to be polite, but an on-time arrival is the most helpful action possible. Many, many thanks in advance.♥
